

SUBJECT: Some Questions....

1. Are human creeds acceptable to God?
2. Since one may insist that, personal interpretations are to be used concerning Scripture, then will God accept one person's interpretations over another's?
3. If all human creeds are not acceptable to God, then how can we determine which one is?
4. If all human creeds are acceptable to God then, would it be possible for God to condemn a person for believing and practicing error?
5. Are all denominations human institutions?
6. Are all denominations acceptable to God?
7. If not, how can a person determine which are (or is)?
